DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The abstract of the disclosure filed November 22, 2004 is objected to because the quotation marks at the beginning and end should be deleted. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 3-7 and 9-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Burg.

The steering nozzle is nozzle 45 of figure 11. The at least one groove is the lower one of grooves 46. This "the groove" has a surface area, and at least 75% of this surface area is located in the lower half of the interior surface area of the steering nozzle.

The nozzle comprises two grooves 46. Each groove 46 comprises at least two sides with a distinct angle between the two sides.

With regard to claims 11, 12, 13, 17, 18 and 19, because applicant has not defined within the claims the meaning of 0.001r, 1.5r, 0.002c, 0.4c, 0.01w and 3w, the grooves 46 of Burg are felt to anticipate these claims. Applicant has not given a meaning to "r", "c" and "w" within the claims.

Art Unit: 3617

With regard to claim 20, see Burg, column 7, lines 11-14. The addition of grooves 46 to the sides of the nozzle for steering would anticipate at least four grooves-two for trim and two for steering.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 2 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Burg in view of Kobayashi.

The boat of Burg does not comprise two or more propulsors. Kobayashi shows a boat with two propulsors. It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains to provide the boat of Burg with two propulsors both similar to the one propulsor of Burg.

Motivation to do so is to provide more power to the boat of Burg.

6. Claims 11-13 and 17-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Burg.

The grooves of Burg do not have the length, width and spacing as defined in the above claims; however, to provide the grooves 46 of Burg with the claimed length, width and spacing as defined in the above claims would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Motivation to do so is to make a nozzle of a particular size having grooves of a particular width, length and spacing.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed November 22, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments revolve around his assertion that the nozzle in figure 11 of Burg is not a steering nozzle. Applicant's attention is directed toward column 7, line 1 where Burg discloses his trimmable nozzle and to column 7, lines 10-15 which reads:

While not shown in FIG. 11, it is possible to also use such control flap like elements on either side of a discharge nozzle to act as steering means....

With the control flap like elements on either side of the discharge nozzle in figure 11, the nozzle becomes a steering nozzle. As such, applicant's arguments are non-persuasive and the rejections stand.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
